IN THE APPEAL OF) Procurement Appeal No.
GUAM PUBLICATIONS INC.,) OPA-PA-08-007 Appellant.) INTERESTED PARTY'S REQUEST ) FOR DISQUALIFICATION OF ) HEARING OFFICER

MARIANAS VARIETY-GUAM, an Interested Party in the above-captioned appeal, by and through undersigned counsel, hereby requests the disqualification of the hearing officer. This opposition is brought pursuant to 5 GCA § 9222 and supported by the accompanying affidavit, Memorandum of Points and Authorities and any additional evidence which may be adduced at the hearing held on the matter.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Appellant Guam Publications Inc. appeals the award of a contract to publish legal notices and raise issues relating to the cost of publishing and whether the publishing legal notices in the Marianas Variety complies with Guam law. Section 9221 provides that “[a]ny party may request the disqualification of any hearing officer or agency member by filing an affidavit prior to the taking of evidence at a hearing, stating with particularity the grounds upon which it is claimed that a fair and impartial hearing cannot be accorded.” 5 GCA § 9222 (2005). In this case, it appears that the hearing officer has an existing and ongoing business relationship with Appellant. Specifically, the hearing officer appears to advertise his private law practice in Appellant's newspaper, the Pacific Daily News, on a weekly basis, approximately three (3) days a week. See Affidavit of Leevin T. Camacho, Exhibit A. Based on this relationship, the hearing officer's impartiality might reasonably be questioned and, therefore, Marianas Variety requests his disqualification.

Furthermore, the hearing officer has published legal notices in the Marianas Variety for his private law practice. See Id., Exhibit B. This is significant because one of Appellant's contentions in this appeal is that the Marianas Variety is not a daily newspaper of general circulation and cannot be awarded the bid as a matter of law. Although focusing primarily on the requirement that notices be placed in a "daily" newspaper, Appellant argues that "the PDN is the only newspaper of general circulation on Guam." Appellant's Comments in Response to Agency Report, p. 4 (emphasis added). The hearing officer, by publishing legal notices with the Marianas Variety, has already rejected Appellant's position on this issue. Thus, a fair and impartial hearing on all of the issues raised in this appeal cannot be held.

CONCLUSION

Based on these considerations, Marianas Variety does not believe a fair and impartial hearing can be held, and, therefore, requests that the hearing officer be disqualified in this matter.

PARIS (AP) — French President Nicolas Sarkozy threatened to snub China but then backed down with barely a whimper.

His decision to attend the opening of the Beijing Olympics, having previously suggested he might boycott the event, reflects how China is increasingly getting its way as it grows into a major power.

Sarkozy realized it was risky to anger the Asian giant—especially if you want to keep selling it planes, power plants and other goods. Last month, as his position started to shift, Sarkozy cautioned that a boycott could “push a population of 1.3 billion people into wounded nationalism.”

The way the usually media-hungry Sarkozy announced crackdown in Tibet after riots and protests there in March. That would have been a slap in the face to China's communist leadership, eager to use the Games to show off the country's power and clout.

But the statement Wednesday from Sarkozy's office, issued after he met with Chinese President Hu Jintao on the sidelines of the Group of Eight summit of industrialized powers in Japan, made no mention of Tibet, human rights or the Dalai Lama, the exiled Tibetan spiritual leader. It said France wants to “deepen its strategic partnership with China”—which is a major client for European plane manufacturer Airbus, as well as French companies from nuclear giant Areva to transport and engineering company Alstom.

Critics of China's human rights failings decried Sarkozy's climb-down. Robert Menard, head of media watchdog Reporters Without Borders, who has played a vocal role in protesting torch relays for the Beijing Games, accused Sarkozy of “betraying values of democracy.”

Sarkozy's decision was pilloried at a debate Wednesday at the European Parliament in Strasbourg, France. “The Chinese Communist Party is prevailing, or they get, lift or to your knees.”
